

Download from
Dreamstime.com

This watermarked comp image is for previewing purposes only.

ID 35103813

© Yulia Gapeenko | Dreamstime.com

Fred Stobaugh Oh Sweet Lorraine Free Download

Fred Stobaugh Oh Sweet Lorraine Free Download

Download from
Dreamstime.com

This watermarked comp image is for previewing purposes only.

ID 35103813

© Yulia Gapeenko | Dreamstime.com

---

PEORIA, Ill., Aug. 30 (UPI) -- A song written by a 96-year-old Illinois man to celebrate his love for his late wife has become an online hit after being set to music and recorded by a studio. Fred Stobaugh said, 'I was sitting here one night, oh about six weeks after she passed away and just sat here kind of hummin' a little bit and it just finally came to me.. He soon turned his sadness into a song 'We were, like, just as one we were Lorraine and I. ' Stobaugh recently lost his wife of nearly 75 years He said they shared a love of music.. A 95-year-old Peoria man isn't a musician, but the lyrics he put on paper are now being shared with the world.

fred stobaugh sweet lorraine

fred stobaugh sweet lorraine, fred stobaugh oh sweet lorraine

e10c415e6f